PORTFOLIO COMPETITION JUNE 2018

(Image by: Gary Stowell Story by: Sheridan Avery).

This year's portfolio competition received entries from seven participants, which saw a drop in entries from previous competitions, but certainly not a drop in the quality of images and sets. Even though numbers were down, the competition was still strongly contested with Andy Rae becoming the 2018 Portfolio winner, followed by a tie for second place between Gary Stowell and Sheridan Avery, and Terry Bruning closing in with third place.

A big thank you to Harold and Betty Mason for travelling to Westport for the judging. Your time and effort in assessing our work and attending our club night is always appreciated, and it was lovely to have you here once again. Read on to see Andy's winning set.

Members the Seddon Shield is getting closer! It is sure to be an exciting and valuable weekend for photographers of all skill levels. If you haven't done so already registrations close on the 17th of August and competition entries close on the 6th of July! Time to review, edit, and submit. With the date coming up quickly we require some club members to assist with the successful running of the Seddon Shield weekend. Any time that you can spare would be extremely valuable to and appreciated by the club. Help us wow the rest of the West and create a great weekend that fellow clubs can participate in and enjoy. Please contact Gary Stowell (gary.stowell88@gmail.com).

You can register and enter online at https://www.seddonshieldphotography.com/ .

Remember I will be living overseas shortly so this will be the only way to get information to me. It would be great if people who will be in closer contact with the club could take over the role of Facebook Admin and Newsletter Editor. It wouldn't hurt to consider it ☺.
